

Anne Baker, Parish Councillor

I moved from Buckinghamshire to Bromham in 2008 to experience village life. Within a short time I realised what an unique and important asset Bromham mill is to us all. I currently help run the Bromham mill wildlife club for children.

I joined the parish council to make a difference to this wonderful village.