

Norman Hughes spent the first half of his career in Telecommunications and the second as a Business Improvement Consultant, he moved to Bromham in February 2008 while working on a semi-retired basis.

He joined Bromham Parish Council in early 2024, keen to contribute to the local community and support the ongoing development of the Bromham Mill site.

A keen classic car enthusiast, he also continues to ride motorcycles. He is Chair of the Bromham Good Neighbours scheme, with his wife Jan volunteering as Secretary.
