

William Armitage

I have been living in this wonderful village for the past 23 years and in Olney before this, so know the local area well.

Having retired, I now have more time to offer to the community and am very enthusiastic to help supporting and developing the village.

I love cycling and sailing throughout the year and cross country skiing in the winter.